Ash-Wednesday, the first day of Lent, falls on the 25th day of February. All the faithful who have completed their twenty-first year are, unless legitimately dispensed, bound to observe the fast of Lent. They are to take only one meal a day, excepting are to take only one meal a day, excepting Sundays. The meal allowed on fast-days is not to be taken until about noon. Flesh meat and fish are not to be used at the same meal during Lent. A small refreshment, commonly called collation, is allowed in the evening, not to exceed the fourth part of an ordinary meal. It is permitted to an ordinary meal. It is permitted to use bread, butter, cheese, eggs, milk, all kinds of fruits, salads, vegetables, and fish at the collation. General usage has made it lawful to take in the morning some warm liquid, as ten, coffee, or thin chocolate made with water, and a mouthful of bread. Necessity and custom have authorized the use of hog's lard instead of butter in preparing permitted food. The following persons are exempted from the obligations of fasting: Persons under twenty-one years of age, the sick, nursing women, those who are obliged to do hard labor, all who through weakness cannot fast without great prejudice to their health. By dispensation the use of flesh meat will be allowed at all meals on Sundays, and once a day on Mondays, on Sundays, and once a day on Mondays, Tuesdays, Thursdays, and Saturdays, with the exception of Holy Thursday and the second and last Saturdays of Lent. The faithful are reminded that besides the obligation of fasting imposed by the Church, this holy season of Lent should be in an especial manner a time of earnest prayer, of sorrow for sin, of exclusion from the world and its environments, and of generous alms-giving. amusements, and of generous alms-giving. The Paschal time extends from the first Sunday of Lent till Trinity Sunday, during which time all Catholics who have attained the use of reason are bound to prepare themselves to receive worthily the holy communion. The holy season of Lent is a very proper time, also, for children to go to their first communion, which they ought to do generally when about seven years of age. Parents should see to this.— Washington Republican, 15th.
